

One Woman's Solution to the Rising Rate of Suicide Among Midlife Women

At a time when the suicide rate among midlife women has risen dramatically [3.9%], Chloe JonPaul is on a mission with her latest book, Entering the Age of Elegance: A Rite of Passage & Practical Guide for the Modern Maturing Woman to help midlife and Boomer women navigate the transition into Second adulthood with style and grace. She challenges women to dispel those myths of aging fostered by the media, pharmaceutical companies and the cosmetics industry.

Best-selling author Peggy McColl and other notables such as Steve Harrison and Jack Canfield have urged Chloe to launch a Best Seller campaign on Amazon. The date is set for April 27th.

The author has been selected for radio show host Don McCauley's forthcoming book, "50 Great Writers you Should Be Reading."
